

Ilene Skeen

ilene.skeen@gmail.com

Dedicated to the vision of Ayn
Rand since 1966

Storyteller

Paying attention since 1946

Let me tell you about...

Life in the Bronx from atop the icebox or under the kitchen table.
Running away from home. Manhattan record player from Sam Goody in 1949, free records.

Long Beach to Levittown, death, family, three schools in first grade.
Glass grapes. Bobby sox. Clarinet, violin, Mr. Kelvin, Miss Howden, Miss Moore. Fantastic High School Teachers: Messrs. Finkel, Lipardo and Ohland.

Mr. Finestein & Shakespeare. Florida by Greyhound bus.

Provincetown, Ayn Rand, The Red Bug. No radio, marriage, Queens, the first Earth day, scrimping and splurging. Gavin.

MBA. Business and earning a living: Analytab Products, BINY Clothing, Doubleday & Co., GHI, Tiaa-Cref. Gavin runs away from home. Ilene on strike since 2002. Josh shows up in 2007 after 38 years.

Rand's challenge: "The two most corrupt fields: psychology and anthropology." Read Freud ✓ Master's in Anthropology, Hunter College, CUNY ✓

"Florida's flat." Boating adventures: Three cats to the Bahamas, The wall of black clouds. Josh at the helm. Living in Paradise.

Travel, Art, Poetry, Music, and Pizza. Objectivist for life.

CONTACT

917-806-7992 ilene.skeen@gmail.com

